

CITIES INCENSED
BY PHONE RULINGSUp-State Corporation Counsel
Doubt They Will Attend
P. S. C. Hearings.

ALBANY, Nov. 30.—Following adjournment until Dec. 12 of the Public Service Commission's hearing in the matter of State-wide rates of the New York Telephone Company, Corporation Counsel representing about 80 per cent. of the population above New York City are undecided to-day whether or not they will refuse to attend future sessions.

They are incensed over the action of the commission in ignoring their protest against proceeding with the hearings until after the New Year, when newly elected municipal officers will assume their duties; in ruling that New York City's rate shall be decided on its own merits, and not on a State-wide basis, and in permitting the company to put in evidence at this time.

However, Commissioner Blakelee has announced that the commission will answer all objections and proposals in a communication to the conference of Mayors.

SHOT ENDS HIS TOOTHACHE.

Sympathetic Friend Draws Pistol.
Not Bottle, From Pocket.

"Red" Davis, forty-eight, a negro, address unknown, was shot and killed last night in a restaurant at No. 502 First Avenue, Brooklyn, by his friend and table-companion, William McCleendon, fifty-one.

Although McCleendon is being held at the Fourth Avenue Police Station, charged with homicide, the police believe that the shooting was accidental and have given credence to McCleendon's explanation, which was as follows:

"Red said that he had a toothache. I had some toothache drops in my pocket, so I said, 'I've got something here that will cure it!' I was in a hurry when I put my hand in my pocket, and by mistake I grabbed the gun instead of the bottle. It accidentally went off and killed him."

THREE HURT AS TRUCK
HITS SUBWAY PILLAR

Louis Mierboat, twenty-two, of No. 1236 DeKalb Avenue, Brooklyn, driving an empty commercial truck hired by the Borden Milk Company south in Southern Boulevard at 5:30 A. M. to-day, turned to avoid hitting an automobile that shot out of Westchester Avenue.

The truck skidded on the wet pavement and was struck against a subway pillar. Mierboat, his helper, Charles Roalston, twenty-five, of No. 745 Fox Street, Bronx, and Policeman William Schmitts of West 125th Street Station, who was sent to protect the driver, were thrown to the ground and were taken to Lincoln Hospital suffering from painful, but not serious, injuries.

WENT IN FOR A MEAL
AND GOT A BAGFULPoliceman Nabs Man Crawling
Through Lunchroom Door.

Policeman Daggett of the West 30th Street Station met a man coming out of the Farragut Lunch at No. 328 Seventh Avenue at 5 A. M. to-day. The man was emerging from a hole in the glass door and was accompanied by a well filled bag.

According to the policeman, the bag was filled with edibles. The prisoner said he was Michael Cosmo, thirty, No. 42 Eighth Avenue, a waiter out work. "I went in for a meal," the policeman quotes him.

"You must be a hearty eater," the policeman said, as he marched him to the station.

NINETEEN YEARS FOR ROBBING WOMAN.

Nineteen years in Sing Sing was the sentence imposed to-day by Judge Rosaleys of General Sessions on Harry Kupfermith, twenty-nine, of No. 907 Clinton Avenue, the Bronx, for his share in severely beating and robbing Mrs. Mary Winters of $615, her life savings, in her home, No. 108 St. Mark's Place, on Aug. 26. Kupfermith has still to serve five years of a term in Sing Sing for robbery, as he was out on parole. His accomplice, known as "Big Jack," got away.
